

Abbeville Cemetery, July, 2005

See numbers next page.

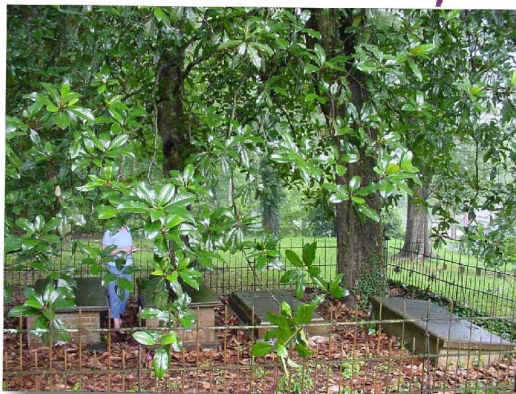

Trinity Episcopal Church - 4 -

- 1 -

- 2 - Abbeville, South Carolina

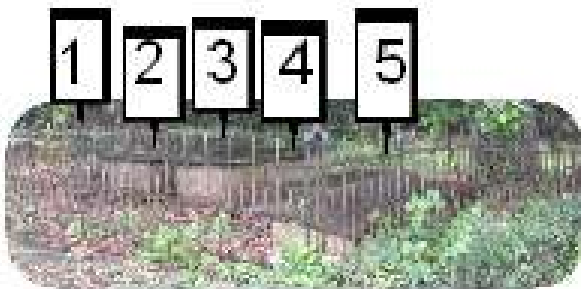

- 5 -

Use the “zoom” feature to enlarge any photo. (Look under the “View” menu or use the enlargement icon.)

The cemetery for Trinity Episcopal Church was difficult to find since the alley was overgrown and it was raining. We circled the block without seeing the cemetery and then found it behind some houses. We parked and walked back to the cemetery and eventually found the graves. On the previous page are pictures of all the Haskell graves in this family plot except for the top of one, Sophia Lovell Cheves Haskell, wife of Charles Thomson Haskell. Inscriptions follow – some were difficult to read.

1 - In memory of Charlotte Haskell
born 29th of Oct, Died 2nd of Dec,
1836; Aged 1 month And 3 days.

2 - Sacred to the Memory of
Charles Thomson Haskell
Died Dec. 27, 1874
Aged 72 years and 10 months
This stone is erected
To the memory of a beloved father
By his six surviving sons.

3 – (not pictured on previous page) -- Sacred To The Memory of Sophia Lovell
Wife of Charles Thomson Haskell, And daughter of Langdon Cheves, Born July 1st 1809
Died July 30th 1881, The work of righteousness shall be peace and the effect of righteousness
Quietness and assurance forever.

4. Sacred to the memory of
Charles Thomson Haskell, CAPT CO D 1st Regt SC Regulars CSA
Who fell in the defense of Charleston Harbour, July 10, 1863
Born March 28, 1835 and of his brother,
William Thomson Haskell, CAPT CO H 1ST Regt SC V Greggs Brigade A, N. Va.
In his life a soldier of Christ. His country be served in the battles of Sumter,
Vienna, Mechanicsville, Cold Harbor, Frasers Farm, Malvern Hill, 2nd Manassas, Ox Hill,
Harpers Ferry, Sharpsburg, Chancellorsville, and fell in the front on the battlefield of Gettysburg,
July 2nd, 1863, commanding battalion of skirmishers.
Born Dec. 11, 1837

5. Allen Wardlaw Haskell, October 28, 1863
July 26, 1926, Died in the hope of Immortality.

Return to home page: <http://members.aol.com/haskelloma/>
(If link does not work just cut and paste to your web browser. Or you can use the return/back button or arrow on your web browser.)